Position Description:

Santa Barbara Dance Institute

SBDI Teaching Artists are professional dancers trained in the National Dance Institute's unique, award-winning pedagogy. We look for qualified dance educators with extensive dance training or professional experience on an ongoing basis.

Requirements: SBDI is modeled after the NDI. All SBDI instructors must be trained in the NDI teaching methodology. NDI's pedagogy was established to codify and disseminate NDI's methodology and to ensure a consistently high standard in the quality of SBDI Instructors.

If you are not trained, you may go to the training in New Mexico. Please visit http://www.ndi-nm.org/content/teacher_training for more information regarding dates and times. Attending the "Teaching Excellence Teacher Training" is a prerequisite to being hired as a Lead Teaching Artist.

Please come and observe one of our classes to become more familiar with our work. You can also visit our website and watch the film page, at <http://www.sbdi.org>, for more information.

SBDI was founded as a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization in 2005, to bring dance and the arts to low income, at-risk children in and around Santa Barbara. In weekly classes held through out the school year, SBDI helps children discover their potential by motivating them to believe in themselves and develop a personal standard of excellence.

Please submit your resume to the email address above.

In your email we ask that you answer the following questions:

- 1) How did you find out about SBDI?
- 2) Have you observed an SBDI class in action?
- 3) Why are you interested in a position with SBDI?

Compensation:

Based on experience
